Do Unto Others...Closet, Saturday, March 21st
9am- Noon @ the Building

Our endeavor to open the Do Unto Others...Closet has already made an impact on our community. Every month we have increased our numbers and met new folks from the community, that are in need. To continue though, we need to consider ways to restock our shelves. Donations are always welcome, and we appreciate all our members and visitors that are able to help.

Our people must learn to devote themselves to doing what is good, in order to provide to urgent needs and not live unproductive lives.

Will We Fly Solo?

Flying solo into the clouds of trouble and pestilence is not such a good idea, for it can lead to bad behavior patterns, causing us to retreat into defeat (Joshua 7:1-5). Like the Israelites, we may spin out of control and into literal despair (Numbers 14:1-4). Note that when the majority of the spies brought a report of intimidating giants and dangers ahead, they used the pronoun "we" seven times with no reference to the Lord at all (Numbers 13:31-33).

The Israelites were very close to receiving the ultimate blessing that God promised to them (Numbers 13:1-2). They were eyewitnesses to the miracles in Egypt and their feet had walked the dry bottom of the Red Sea in great victory (Exodus 14:13-31).

God's faithfulness had been amazingly evident. What short memories His people had! What disappointing faithlessness! Sadly, they turned their backs on God, left the blessing behind, and incurred God's wrath (Numbers 14:11-45).

Caleb and Joshua, on the other hand, opted to turn to the Lord with this confidence: "The Lord is with us" (Numbers 14:9).

When our troubles show up (and they will), will we fly solo?
