OUR MISSION STATEMENT

The mission of the Troy Church of Christ is to exhibit growth and development in the faith, love, and devotion of our members to Christ our Lord thru the recognition and utilization of the talents and skills of each member and through the teaching of the Word of God. The Church will eagerly embrace the opportunity to share the love of Christ through acts of service to those in need in the surrounding community via partnerships with community organizations and relationships of the congregation's members, all for the purpose of winning souls to Christ himself.

“27 Religion that God our Father accepts as pure and faultless is this: to look after orphans and widows in their distress and to keep oneself from being polluted by the world”

James 1:27

“19 Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, 20 and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you. And surely, I am with you always, to the very end of the age.”

Matthew 28:19-20

Today's Service:

Sermon: Dan Farrington

Songs: Noah Ashton

Communion: Dan Farrington

Inspiration:

We are given the ability to learn by our Creator. Knowledge is up to us to acquire, but true wisdom can only come from God through the Holy Spirit.

How can we pray for you?

*Rejoice always, pray continually, give thanks in all circumstances; for this is God’s will for you in Christ Jesus.
1 Thessalonians 5:16-18*

I’ve Learned...

In all my years as a Christian, I’ve learned the following:

- 1) That you can do or say something in an instant that will give you heartache for life.
- 2) That it’s taking me a long time to become the person God wants me to be.
- 3) That you should always leave loved ones with loving words – it may be the last time you see them.
- 4) That you can keep on going long after you think you can’t.
- 5) That either you control your attitude, or it controls you.
- 6) That heroes are the people who do what has to be done when it needs to be done, regardless of the consequences.
- 7) That my best friend and I can do anything or nothing and still have the best time.
- 8) That sometimes I have the right to be angry, but that doesn’t give me the right to be cruel.
- 9) That maturity doesn’t have as much to do with how many birthdays you’ve had as much as what you’ve learned from your life experiences.
- 10) That no matter how bad your heart is broken; the world doesn’t stop for your grief.
- 11) That credentials on the wall do not make you a decent human being.
- 12) That the people you care about most in life are taken from you too soon.
- 13) That even when you “think” you have no more to give, when a friend cries out to you, you find the strength to help.
- 14) That I didn’t bring anything into this world and I shall take nothing out with the exception of my character and my relationship to God (Job 1:21).
- 15) That the two most important goals in this life are to, “Fear God, and keep his commandments: for this is the whole duty of man” (Ecclesiastes 12:13).
