OUR MISSION STATEMENT

The mission of the Troy Church of Christ is to exhibit growth and development in the faith, love, and devotion of our members to Christ our Lord thru the recognition and utilization of the talents and skills of each member and through the teaching of the Word of God. The Church will eagerly embrace the opportunity to share the love of Christ through acts of service to those in need in the surrounding community via partnerships with community organizations and relationships of the congregation's members, all for the purpose of winning souls to Christ himself.

"27 Religion that God our Father accepts as pure and faultless is this: to look after orphans and widows in their distress and to keep oneself from being polluted by the world"

James 1:27

"19 Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, 20 and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you. And surely, I am with you always, to the very end of the age."

Matthew 28:19-20

Today's Service:

Sermon: Peter Archibald
Songs: Bob Shaver
Communion: Dan Farrington

Inspiration:

"Be joyful in hope, patient in affliction, faithful in prayer."

Romans 12:12

Proverbially Speaking

In the 2011, volume 49, number 4 edition of The Sword and Staff publication, pg. 2, comes the following proverbs of wisdom (appropriate Scriptures and related articles have been added):

Gail Apfel was attacked by a dog. Please pray that her wounds heal quickly.

Diane Quillinan was in the hospital, please pray that she recovers quickly.

How can we pray for you?

- Under grace, sin is still sin; that is why grace is grace (Romans 6:1-2).
- The Lord came to save us “from” our sins (Matthew 1:21), not “in” our sins (Acts 26:18).
- Don’t expect to get much out of life if you don’t put much into it (Proverbs 19:24; Proverbs 26:13-15).
- The covers of a book are what we see, but more important is that which is in between.
- The reward of a thing well done is to have done it and done it well (cf. Matthew 25:19-23 – note the phrase, “well done.”
- “Loneliness” and “solitude” may refer to the same situation, but which one it is, is determined by us.
- If charity begins at the home and just stays there, it goes nowhere (James 2:14-17).
- It can be said that “phileo” love is the love that comes with natural birth, and that “agapao” (agape) love is the love that comes with the new birth (John 3:1-8; Romans 15:1-3; Philippians 2:1-4).
- A body ought to be busy, but not a busybody (2 Thessalonians 3:11-12).
- The person who tells all he knows, doesn’t know all that much (Proverbs 10:19; Ecclesiastes 5:3).
- When action is needed, patience is no longer a virtue (Matthew 20:6-7).
- If you stay on top of things, it is hard for them to get you down.

*Rejoice always, pray continually, give thanks in all circumstances; for this is God’s will for you in Christ Jesus.
1 Thessalonians 5:16-18*
