Do Unto Others...Closet

Will reopen in the fall

Please note there will be new procedures in place.

Our endeavor to open the Do Unto Others...Closet has already made an impact on our community. Every month we have increased our numbers and met new folks from the community, that are in need. To continue though, we need to consider ways to restock our shelves. Donations are always welcome, and we appreciate all our members and visitors that are able to help.

Our people must learn to devote themselves to doing
what is good, in order to provide to urgent needs
and not live unproductive lives.
Titus 3:14

Pray for Missionaries

It began with the Lord Himself who, out of compassion for those whom He described as "distressed and dispirited like sheep without a shepherd", spoke to His disciples, saying, "The harvest is plentiful, but the workers are few. Therefore, beseech the Lord of the harvest to send out workers into His harvest" (Mt. 9:36-38). Then, as the foreboding shadow of the cross drew ever closer, Jesus prayed for His chosen apostles and for those who would believe in Him through their message, asking "that they may all be one; even as You, Father, are in Me and I in You, that they also may be in Us, so that the world may believe that You sent Me" (Jn. 17:21).

In the early days of the church, when threats came against Peter and John for preaching in the name of Jesus, the disciples "lifted up their voices to God with one accord" asking Him to "take note of their threats, and grant that Your bond-servants may speak Your word with all confidence..." (Acts 4:29). Their prayer was answered in truly remarkable ways.

When, in accordance with the Holy Spirit's instructions, the church in Antioch set apart Barnabas and Saul prior to their first missionary journey, they were sent forth after prayer and fasting (Acts 13:3).

The letters of the apostle repeatedly mention his earnest desire for the prayers of the church in helping him carry out God's purpose for his life. One of the more familiar examples is found in the book of Ephesians where Paul mentions prayer in connection with the armor of God. Not only did he ask the brethren to pray for "all the saints", he also asked them to pray on his behalf so that he might "make known with boldness the mystery of the gospel" and "speak boldly, as [he] ought to speak" (Eph. 6:18-20). There are other references to prayer on behalf of missionary outreach, but these are enough to lay a foundation for a strong appeal that we take seriously our duty to pray for those who are doing the Lord's work and especially those who are working in foreign fields.
