In essential beliefs — we have unity.

“There is one body and one Spirit--just as you were called to one hope when you were called--one Lord, one faith, one baptism; one God and Father of all, who is over all and through all and in all.”

Ephesians 4:4-6 (NIV)

In non-essential beliefs — we have liberty.

“Accept him whose faith is weak, without passing judgment on disputable matters. Who are you to judge someone else’s servant? To his own master he stands or falls...So then each of us will give an account of himself to God...So whatever you believe about these things keep between yourself and God.”

Romans 14:1, 4, 12, 22 (NIV)

In all our beliefs — we show charity.

“If I have the gift of prophecy and can fathom all mysteries and all knowledge, and if I have a faith that can move mountains, but have not love, I am nothing.”

1st Corinthians 13:2 (NIV)

Troy church of Christ
October 16th, 2016

An old Native American was describing for a listener the struggles he has with the inner man. “Inside of me there are two dogs. One is good and gentle. One is mean and evil. The mean one fights with the good dog all the time.” The listener waited for the answer to the obvious question and finally asked the old man, “Which one wins?” After a moment of reflection, the old Indian said, “The one I feed the most.”

The Bible says, “But I say, walk by the Spirit, and you will not carry out the desire of the flesh. For the flesh sets its desire against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh; for these are in opposition to one another, so that you may not do the things that you please” (Galatians 5:16-17).

Each one of us has a war waging within. It is the struggle between the desire of the flesh and the leading of the Spirit. If we are honest with ourselves, it is a battle about which we give little thought most of the time. We go about our daily lives doing what we want and pursuing our personal agendas without much consideration of which is winning and which is losing.

The fact remains that with every choice we encounter, one of the combatants is going to win. And the one that wins will be the one that we feed the most. When we refuse to discipline our lives with prayer, Bible reading and church attendance, our fleshly desires will continuously do a victory dance on our intentions to live the holy life. But when we deliberately and consciously fill our lives with spiritual things (prayer, the Word of God, church attendance) and spiritual thoughts, the Holy Spirit will lead us to victory.
