In essential beliefs — we have unity.

“There is one body and one Spirit--just as you were called to one hope when you were called--one Lord, one faith, one baptism; one God and Father of all, who is over all and through all and in all.”

Ephesians 4:4-6 (NIV)

In non-essential beliefs — we have liberty.

“Accept him whose faith is weak, without passing judgment on disputable matters. Who are you to judge someone else’s servant? To his own master he stands or falls...So then each of us will give an account of himself to God...So whatever you believe about these things keep between yourself and God.”

Romans 14:1, 4, 12, 22 (NIV)

In all our beliefs — we show charity.

“If I have the gift of prophecy and can fathom all mysteries and all knowledge, and if I have a faith that can move mountains, but have not love, I am nothing.”

1st Corinthians 13:2 (NIV)

Repentance

Life is a journey. A journey from here to there. Here we know. There some know. Most do not. This journey is rough and full of struggles whichever way you find yourself. Irrespective of your social status, race or gender, life will lay its icy hands on you. It even becomes harder when you live a meaningful life and decide to follow Christ.

Each day believers face the snare of the devil to take us away from Christ and the promise of salvation that awaits us. The devil sets his traps through the desires of this world which are hard to resist. The result of falling for this desire is destruction.

Paul put it this way "Those who want to get rich fall into temptation and a trap and into many foolish and harmful desires that plunge people into ruin and destruction" (1 Tim 6:9).

No matter how deep one falls away from God, there is always a way out. God has given us a door we can always depend on in times of need. That door is Christ, the way of life, the light of the world and the savior of mankind.

He is a loving God that does not hold your sins against you if you are willing turn away from your sins. He is always willing to forgive you and start a new life with you at any point. He has saved millions and today he has opened his arms to welcome you to his family if you repent from your sins and turn to Him.

“O LORD, be gracious to me; heal me, for I have sinned against you!” (Psalm 41:4) Amen.

2 Corinthians 7:9

And now I rejoice, not because you were made sorrowful, but because your sorrow led you to repentance. For you felt the sorrow that God had intended, and so were not harmed in any way by us.
